1. We greatly appreciate [ ] efforts in this case, but because of the departure from the Algerian scene of one of the principals in the CE matter, we no longer have the pressing need for information on GENOUD that we once had.

2. However, it would appear that because of his known past activities, GENOUD will again at some point become of interest to WOFAC, and this may be the opportunity to pry what we can from [ ]. GENOUD's involvement in the CE case indeed appeared to be peripheral. You may say to [ ] that our interest in him lies in the fact that he was involved with Dr. Hans Rechenberg, a German economic adviser to the Algerian Government, who was suspected of having collaborated with the Algerian Security Service. In turn, a member of Rechenberg's staff was in contact with employees of the U.S. Embassy in Algiers. FYI, these suspicions were not substantiated, and the member of the staff in question has since departed Algiers.

3. Regarding the correct 201 number for this case, [ ] is the correct number for Subject. The 201 number cited in reference C is for Mohamed Khider.
